ACCREDITATION AND APPROVALS

Institutional Accreditations and Approvals
Lincoln College of New England is accredited on probation by the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education, New England Association of Schools and Colleges, effective July 26, 2018, because the Commission finds that the institution is in danger of losing its accreditation because it is not in compliance with the Standards for Accreditation. Of concern are accreditation standards relating to Planning and Evaluation; Organization and Governance; the Academic Program; Students; Teaching, Learning and Scholarship; Institutional Resources; and Educational Effectiveness. A statement providing further information about the probationary status is available on the website of the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education (https://cihe.neasc.org).

Lincoln College of New England is also accredited by the State of Connecticut Office of Higher Education. For additional information regarding the College's approval by the State of Connecticut, please visit http://www.ctohe.org/HEWeb/CollegesList.asp The College is also approved to offer programs for the education and training through the following organizations:

- U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs for veterans and other beneficiaries
- Service Members Opportunities College (SOC)
- Connecticut Bureau of Rehabilitation Services
- United States Department of Justice (for enrollment of non-immigrant alien students)
